Submission of an application for the secondment of an expert

If special expertise is required to establish or assess evidence that is relevant to the commission of a breach, the offence authority dealing with the offence may order an expert upon request. If the secondment of the expert is initiated by the defendant or by the plaintiff and he anticipates the expert's expected expenses, the appointment of the expert is mandatory. If the existing expert opinion is incomplete or contradictions cannot be solved, the secondment of another expert may also be requested.

The request for secondment of the expert (hereinafter referred to as "the application") shall be sent to the authority acting on the case. The relevant authority shall make a decision having evaluated the application.

Electronic attachments may accompany the application.

Receipt of the application

Applications and attachments submitted electronically through the client gateway are forwarded to the document management system of the Police via the central electronic service system . The client receives notification thereof from the central electronic service system. The application and its attachments automatically reach the authority that they are addressed to via the document management system of the Police and the applicant receives an automatic notification of the fact.
