Procedure

On-the-spot fines may also be imposed in the absence of the driver for the offense committed with the vehicle. In this case, a check coupon containing the amount charged must be sent to the address of the operator established on the basis of the registration number of the vehicle.

If the vehicle operator does not acknowledge the imposition of a fine on the spot, the infringement procedure shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions otherwise applicable. The same shall apply if the on-the-spot fine is not paid by check or by bank transfer to the vehicle operator within the period prescribed by the Law.

The purpose of the ÁNYK form is to enable the public surveillance authorities holding the office to file a report of a vehicle offense by an unidentified person to the competent police offense authorities ("the authority").

A report of a vehicle offense committed by an unidentified person must be reported to the competent authority in the place where the offense was committed.

The form contains structured fields which, when properly filled in, will ensure that the complaint is automatically submitted to the authority competent for the procedure.

In order to ensure efficient administration, it is important that forms should be completed and submitted on a case-by-case basis.

Any number of attachments (but at least 1) can be attached to the case, up to a maximum size limit of 300 MB per forms.
