Procedural order

As of 1 January 2021, first instance public administration procedures are exempt from charges.

The form and its annexes can be lodged

- by partner authorities at the Official Gateway,
- by associations at the Companies' Gateway; by the chairman at his own Client's Gateway,
- by companies (general partnership, limited partnership, Ltd., LLC) at the Companies' Gateway,
- by individual entrepreneurs at the Clients' Gateway.

In the free text "change to report" field of the form, the exact justification shall be included.

The size of annexes cannot exceed 25 MB per file.

Please be informed that annexes can be attached prior to finalizing the form, by pressing the "New upload" button.

The decision will be delivered electronically, to the electronic address used for contacts (Official Gateway, Clients' Gateway, or Companies' Gateway). Following the downloading of the decision, the registration of the changes (change in the name, revoking of authorization or permit following the change in the number plate) with the Government Customer Service shall also be initiated.

In case if the permit is revoked, the warning audible devices and lights shall be removed from the vehicle.

Pursuant to of Act II of 2012 on Minor Offences, the Minor Offence Procedure and the Minor Offence Registration System (hereafter: Act), it constitutes a minor offence if

- no registration is made following the revoking of the permit relating to emergency response vehicles' warning device (Article 225 (1) of the Act),
- warning devices are not removed following the revoking of the permit relating to emergency response vehicles' warning device (Article 223. § (1) a) of the Act),
- no registration is made or warning devices are not removed following the revoking of the permit relating to other warning devices (Article 225. § (1) of the Act).

Submitting an application

The application shall be lodged with the police station issuing it (in case of other warning devices), or the county police headquarters / National Police Headquarters (in case of warning devices of emergency response vehicles).

The operator of the vehicle is obliged to report to the authorizing body, within 15 days following the change, all changes in the purpose of operating the vehicle, its deregistering or changes in the person of the operator or in the permit. In addition to report changes, this form can also be used to request the revoking of the permit.

In the interest of identification, the case number of the previously issued permit shall also be indicated.

Processing an application

The authority with competence and jurisdiction shall take a decision in a summary procedure within 8 days following the receiving of the request.

Should the authority conclude to have no competence or jurisdiction in the case and the competent proceeding authority can be identified without doubt, they shall forward the case to the latter, or in the absence thereof, shall refuse the request or terminate the procedure. The forwarding shall be included in an order that shall be delivered to the applicant.

The police will deliver the electronically authenticated and submitted decision to the applicant. During the procedure, no personal appearance is required.
