Identifier	Title of form
LKKU1	Komplex motoros meghajtású légi jármű vezetésére vonatkozó típusképzésen (gyakorlórepülésen) résztvevő személyek bejelentése
LKKU1	Notification of persons participating in type rating training (training flight) for flying complex motor-powered aircraft.

This information is effective as of 23 August 2021

Pursuant Article 32 (1) of Act XCVII of 1995 on air traffic, the competent police headquarters based on the location of the training must be notified in writing by the training organization of the participation in type training for driving complex motor-powered aircraft at least 10 working days prior to the beginning of the training.

Multiple persons and dates can be recorded in one application form. The form can only be submitted through the companies' electronic gateway (in an identifiable way).

Within two working days from the reception of the notification the organization established to carry out general police tasks forwards it simultaneously to the counter terrorism service for investigation of terror threat, as well as to the Constitution Protection Office, the Information Office and the Military National Security Service for the purpose of examining the national security interest.

The counter terrorism body, the Constitution Protection Office, the Information Office and the Military National Security Service send their expert opinion to the organization established to carry out general police tasks within a maximum of four working days of receiving the notification. The opinion is valid for 90 days.

The organization established to carry out general police tasks may prohibit the training for public security purposes, or based on the expert opinion of the counter terrorism body, the Constitution Protection Office, the Information Office and the Military National Security Service. The notifier is informed of this decision in the form of a resolution within two days of receiving the expert opinions.

The notifier may, concerning the resolution of the organization established to carry out general police tasks, lodge a request for the initiation of an administrative trial within three days of receiving the resolution, by using the TK-120101 form. The resolution of the police headquarters must be enclosed to the request.
